South Plains Shooting Academy is proud to offer this NRA Basic Range Safety Officer Course. This NRA RSO certification course trains participants to run a shooting range safely, and this certification is often required to run ranges and matches for church groups, 4H groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and other specific groups and events. This training does meet Boy Scouts of America "Qualified Instructor" requirements for supervising shooting activities (BSA requires 1 RSO and 1 Certified Instructor).

NRA Range Safety Officer Training:

Saturday, Sept 8, 9AM-7PM
(With lunch break.)

Location: TBA

Edwards, MS

Notes: All necessary supplies are furnished by South Plains Shooting Academy. If you are an NRA member or instructor, please bring your NRA ID card.
